

ALPHABETICAL TABLE

OF

CONTENTS.

- Advertisements extraordinary, 285.
 Advice to a Young Essayist, 501.
 Ægesta, remains of, 389.
 Agriculture, 108, 220, 327, 440, 573, 684.
 Alasco, Mr. Shee's tragedy of, suppressed by the Licenser, 313.
 Analects from J. P. Richter, 117.
 Andrea, John Valentine, 143—to be considered the founder of the Rosicrucians, 144.
 Anecdotes of Ghosts, 255, 256.
 Arab character, 385.
 Architecture, French work on, 213—German ditto, 214—remains of Moorish, at Palermo, 390.
 Ariosto, Rose's Translation of, 623—his immorality, 624—compared with Dante and Tasso, ib.—his characteristic merits, 625—difficulty of translating, 626.
 Aristotelian logic, value of, 310.
 Arithmetic, mental, 509.
 Association, the Kildare Street, Dublin, 459.
 Bacon, his error in rejecting Aristotelian logic, 310—his New Atlantis, 652.
 Baphomet, the Symbol of the Knights' Templars, 600.
 Batavian Anthology, review of, 300.
 Biography: Vauquelin, 26—Schiller, 37—Steibelt, 99—Viganoni, ditto—H. Smart, ditto—C. Rosycross, 142—Rossini, 189, 209—Dr. Callcott, 306—Ricardo, 309—Rev. T. Delafield, 397—P. Gringore, 401—J. Brasbridge, 417—Paul Jones, 492, 630—Richard Tarlton, 517—Chatterton, 631, (see also Deaths.)
 Bird in a darkened cage, complaint of, 117.
 Bombet's Memoirs of Rossini, 189.
 Bowring's Batavian Anthology, 300.
 Boys, plan for education of, in large numbers, 410.
 Brasbridge's Fruits of Experience, 417.
 Bride of Modern Italy, 357.
 Buhle, his work on the Free Masons, 5.
 Bullock's Mexican Museum, 521.
 Byron, Lord, 276—remarks on his translation of the ballad of Alhama, 279, note—his poetical imitations, 283—imitation of Goethe, 284, 527—review of his Deformed Transformed, 315—elected member of the council of Missolonghi, 323—his poetry, sensual, 426—remarks on Beppo, 626—his death, 679, 694.
 Callcott, Dr. memoir of, 306.
 Character, National, Kant on, 381.
 Characters: a cynic, 67—Laird Hauselock, 74—The Superior of the Convent of St. S——, 359—Frank Hargrave, 523—Henriette de P——, 618.
 Chatterton, Richard, Letters to the Country by, 64, 293.
 Chatterton, Thomas, 631.
 Children, young, death of, 117.
 Christmas holidays, 198.
 Colman, Mr., refuses to license Shee's Alasco, 313.
 Commerce, 109, 220, 328, 440, 574, 685—Retrospective View of, 686.
 Connubia Florum, on the author of that poem, 272.
 Costé, work by, on Arabian Architecture, 213.
 Crabbe, his poetical imitations, 282.
 Cromwell, his cruelty towards the Irish, 591—not the founder of Free-masonry, 655.
 Dahlmann, Professor, his historical researches, 443.
 Dale, Commodore, 629—his account of Paul Jones's action with the Serapis, ib.
 Death, 117.
 Deaths: Bishop Cornwallis, Gandon (architect), Ex-King of Sardinia, 224—Sir H. B. Dudley, Sir Brooke Boothby, Langlés, Sir T. Maitland, 336—Admiral De Courcy, 447—Miss Lee, Eugene Beauharnois, T. E. Bowdich, Cambaceres, Cardinal Gonsalvi, 448—Rev. T. Maurice, Duchess of Devonshire, 578—R. Payne Knight, Bishop Buckner, Belzoni, Lord Byron, 694.
 Delafield, Rev. Thos., 397, note.
 Delavigne, French poet, his Ecole des Vieillards, 99—account of, 153—translations from, 154.
 Democritus Junior, 239.

- Devil in Ireland, 453.
 Dialogues of Three Templars, on Political Economy, Introductory, 341—I. 347—II. 427—III. 547—IV. 550—V. 557—VI. 561.
 Dogs, Esquimaux, 482.
 Don Carlos, Schiller's, 46.
 Drama: Covent Garden, Vespers of Palermo, 92—Miss F. H. Kelly, 94—the King's Visits to the Theatres, ditto—Grimaldi, 95—the Pantomimes, 197—Covent Garden, Harlequin and Poor Robin, 198—Grimaldi; Drury Lane, Harlequin and the Flying Chest, 200—Philandering, Young's Sir Pertinax, Simpson and Co. 201—Surrey and Coburg Theatres, the Hertfordshire Tragedy, 202—Covent Garden, Native Land, 311—Misses Paton, Love, and Tree, 312—The Poachers, ib.—Drury Lane, Merry Wives of Windsor, ib.—Mr. Colman, refusal to license Mr. Shee's Alasco, 313—Mr. Young at Exeter, 314—Covent Garden, Pride shall have a fall, 429—English Opera House, Matthews, 430—the Easter Spectacles, 567—Covent Garden; Henry IV.—Drury Lane, 671.
 Dramatists, Postscript to Letters to, 60.
 Dreaming, 120.
 Dryden, his excellence, 628.
 Dublin, bay of, 454—city, 457.
 Dutch, poetry, 300—character, 384.
 Easter feast, at Naples, 124, 126.
 Education, 410—Madras system, 410—character of the new system, 412—school government, 414, 503—grammar, 505—mental arithmetic, 509—themes, 509—rewards and punishments, 511—best mode of acquiring languages, 512—elocution, 513—penmanship, 513.
 Elizabeth, wretched state of Ireland in her reign, 588.
 English character, 67, 383—physiology, 646.
 Epigrams, German, 237, 364.
 Equitable Loans, 621.
 Esquimaux, 475—Iligliuk, an Esquimaux lady, 479—general character, 482—dogs, ib.—superstition, 483.
 Essayist, young, advice to, 501.
 Etiquette, punctilious, of naval commanders, 629.
 Euripides, supposed Drama of Richard the Third by, 603.
 Exhibition of the Royal Academy, 663.
 Faciæ Bibliographiæ, No. IV. Democritus Junior, 239—V. Rahere, 397—VI. Tarlton, 517.
 False Distinctions, 642.
 Fama Fraternitatis, account of that work, 132.
 Fanaticism, 385.
 Fancy, 121.
 Farren, Mr., on the Madness of Hamlet, 373—of Ophelia, 487—on Hamlet's Soliloquy, 647.
 Featherstonhaugh, C. F., Memoirs of, 133.
 Female tongue, 119.
 Fleet-street Biography, 417.
 Flogging in the Navy, 139.
 Fludd, Robt., the immediate Founder of Free-masonry in England, 257.
 Forgiveness, 119.
 Foreign Literature, Sketch of, 99, 211, 329, 441.
 Franco di Girolamo, a Jesuit, beatification of, 230—account of, 231—miracles performed by, 233.
 Free-masons and Rosicrucians, origin of, 5—internal characteristics, 7—who excluded from, 8—their pretensions to mysteries, 9—external characteristics, and public profession of beneficence, 9—earliest historical traces of, 10—their origin in England, 256—Free-masonry, Rosicrucianism adapted to England, ib.—the first Lodge in England, 259—the building of Bacon's Temple of Solomon not their object, 652—nor the restoration of Charles II. 653—not connected with politics, 654—what is to be understood by the "Lost Word or Logos," 655—Cromwell not the founder, ib.—the "Scotch Degree," 656—not derived from the Knights Templars, 657.
 French, their taste with respect to the Fine Arts, 381—French character, 382.
 — Poets, Early, F. Vauquelin, 26—Amadis Jamyn, 251—Pierre Gringore, 401.
 — Modern, C. Delavigne, 153.
 Friends, quarrels of, 120.
 Funds, the, 691.
 Genius, character of, 290.
 German, character, 363.
 — Epigrams, 237, 364, 599.
 Ghosts, on, 253.
 Ghost-player's Guide, 368—Observations on it, 461.
 Goethe, his dedication to his poems, 186—translation from, 285—another version of the same ballad, 527.
 Good, Dr., on melancholy madness, 378.
 Grammars, defects of those in use, 508.
 Grose, Capt., his collection of curious advertisements, 285.
 Hajji Baba, review of, 193.
 Hamlet, the character of the Ghost, the most difficult of any in Shakspeare, 368—on the madness of Hamlet, 373—his Soliloquy, 647.
 Hargrove, Frank, a character, 523—his critique on Landor's Imaginary Conversations, 526.
 Heeren, Professor, his historical works, 443.
 Heinsius, 308.
 Hemans, Mrs., her tragedy of the Vespers of Palermo, 92.
 Henriette de P——, 618.
 Henry VI. verses by, 640.
 — VIII. ditto, 640.
 Herculeum, 122.

- Heroism, nameless, 119.
 Hertford, account of the Trial of Thurtle and Hunt at, 165.
 Historical problems, 5.
 ——— works, French, 441—German, 443.
 Hooft, Dutch poet, 302.
 Hunt, J., trial of, for murder of Mr. Weare, 165.
 Jamyn, Amadis, French poet, 251.
 Ideographia, 514.
 Idols, Mexican, 522.
 Jesters, court, 397.
 Jesuits, re-establishment of, at Naples, 229.
 Imaginary Conversations, Landor's, 523.
 Imagination, 118—not possessed by women in a greater degree than by men, 642—not by savages and oriental nations in a superior degree, 643.
 Imitations and plagiarisms, recent, poetical, 277—Scott, 277—Southey, 278—Montgomery, 281—Crabbe, Graham, Milman, Moore, 282—Byron, 283.
 Intellect, superior, an object of admiration, per se, 309.
 Jones, Paul, sketches of, 492—his action with the Serapis, 630.
 Ireland, the Devil in, 453—the Kildare-street association, 459—Captain Rock, 563—wretched state of Ireland under Elizabeth, 588—James I. 589—despotic government of Strafford, under Charles I. 591—Cromwell, ib.—James II. 592—administration under Townshend, Harcourt, &c. 595—the Church Establishment, 680. (See Public Events.)
 Italy, recollections of, 21—walk to Pastum, &c. 122—number of ruins of the middle ages, in, 128.
 Jurisprudence, foreign publications on, 330.
 Kant, in what degree obscure, 344—on National character in relation to the sense for the sublime and beautiful, 381—on Swedenborgianism, 469.
 Kildare-street association, 459.
 Kings have succeeded in many arts, but not in poetry, 639—and why, ib.
 Labour, the quantity of, the ground of value, 347.
 Lacy, J., his reply to Terentius Secundus, 469.
 Lancasterian system of education, Mr. Coleridge's censure of, 511.
 Landor's Imaginary Conversations, 523.
 Languages, how to be taught, 505, 508.
 Letter from one of the Dramatists of the Day to J. Lacy, 272—reply to, 469.
 Letters to the Country, by R. Chatterton, No. I., 64—No. II. on the intellectual characteristics of the two sexes, 293.
 Lion's Head, 3, 115, 227, 339, 451, 581.
 Literary Life, its disadvantages, 37.
 Literature, Danish, 101, 444.
 ——— French, 99, 211, 329, 441.
 ——— German, 101, 214, 331, 443.
 Literature, Italian, 214.
 ——— Russian, 444.
 Liver, diseased, the primary cause of madness, 645.
 Logic, value of, 310.
 Madness, Hamlet's, 373—Ophelia's, 487—remarks on Madness, 645.
 Madras system of Education, 410.
 Maier, Mich. writer on the Rosicrucian Society, 148.
 Malthus, Mr., his objections against Ricardo, 343—his doctrine of value, 551—objections to Ricardo's theory of value, 557—errors of his table illustrating the invariable value of labour, 562.
 Man, a misanthrope by nature, 67.
 Martyrdom, 121.
 Maynard's "Twelve Wonders," extracts from, 620.
 Memoir of C. F. Featherstonhaugh, 133.
 Memoirs of Rossini, review of, 189—of Captain Rock, ditto, 583.
 Mexican Museum, Bullock's, 521.
 Midshipman, miseries of one, 136.
 Milman, Mr., his poetical imitations, 282.
 Milton, Latin manuscript of, discovered, 572.
 Miracles, by Franco di Girolamo, 233.
 Misanthrope, man one by nature, 67.
 Miseries of a midshipman, 136.
 Monastery at La Cava, 125.
 Montague, E. Wortley, matrimonial advertisement of, 287.
 Montgomery, poetical imitations by, 281.
 Moon and Stars, a fable, 202.
 Moore, poetical imitations by, 282.
 Mummy caves at Palermo, 391.
 Music: Provincial Concerts, Manchester, &c. Warminster, 96—Italian Opera at Bath, Sir G. Smart's Concerts at ditto, Norwich Musical Festival, King's Theatre, Performers, Rossini's Zelmira, 97—Mr. Sinclair at Covent Garden, Steibelt's death, Viganoni's, H. Smart's, 98—New Music, 99—King's Theatre, Rossini, his Zelmira, 208—his appearance at the opera, 209—Garcia, Signora Colbran Rossini, Concerts, 210—New Music, 211—Madame Catalani, 304—Miss D. Travis, the Bristol Harmonic Institution, Mr. Cummins' Lectures on Music, Oratorio at Drury-lane, 305—Dr. Callcott's Glees, and memoir of that composer, 306—New Music, 307—Royal Academy, 405—Remarks on the expensiveness of Concerts, Oratorios, 406—Stadler's Oratorio of Jerusalem Delivered, Concerts at the Opera-house, 407—Catalani, 'Il Fanatico per la musica,' 408—New Music, 409—Oratorios, the Star of Bethlehem, the Prophecy, General success of the season, the Misses Cawes, 542—Defects of Braham and Sinclair, King's Theatre, Clementi, 543—decline of Catalani's fame, Miss Love, Madame Pasta, Master Aspull,

- 544—Mr. Chatterton, harp-player, Rics' Farewell Concert, Griesbach's illness, Mr. Wheeler, bass-singer, risk attending Concerts, legal dispute between Mr. Morris and Miss Paton, 545—New Music, 546—King's Theatre: Madame Pasta, Madame Ronzi di Begnis, 672—Remorini, Ambrogetti, Rossini's Ugo, Pasta, 673—Catalani, Aristocratical Concerts, 674—Concerts, Royal Academy, New Publications, 675.
- Naples, 24—re-establishment of the Jesuits at, 229.
- National character, Kant on, 381.
- Navy, flogging in, 139.
- Nelly, George, 528.
- Nicolai, his hypothesis respecting the Freemasons, 653.
- Night, 119.
- Notes from the Pocket Book of a late Opium-Eater, No. IV. False distinctions, 642—Madness, 645—English Physiology, 646.
- Observations on the Ghost-Player's Guide, 461.
- Old Letters, 615.
- Ophelia, on the madness of, 487.
- Opposites, knowledge of things derived from an acquaintance with their opposites, 121.
- Orlando Furioso, Rose's Translation of, 623.
- Palermo, supposed origin of, 389—festival of St. Rosalia, 390—remains of Moorish architecture, 390—mummy caves, 391.
- Pæstum, walk to, 122.
- Paracelsus, 140.
- Parry, Captain, Second Voyage of Discovery, 474.
- Penmanship, 513.
- Petty, Sir W., his Law of Value, 353.
- Philosophic minds, two divisions of, 120.
- Physiology, English, 646.
- Pirate's Treasure, a tale, 261.
- Plagiarisms, recent poetical, 277.
- Poetry, Dutch, 300—the characteristic poetry of the present age, 424—why not successfully cultivated by Kings, 639.
- Poetry:
- Cupid's Revenge, from Menzini, 4, (L. H.)
 - Translations from Vauquelin, 27, &c.
 - 'Shady valleys,' Idyle, from ditto, 31.
 - 'There is no God, &c.' Sonnet from Cotta, 33.
 - 'Poet of Greece,' do. from Fracastoro, 33.
 - 'Sweet stream whose murmurs,' do. from Cngaro, 44.
 - 'Oft on the recollection,' do. from Lorenzo de' Medici, 34.
 - The Indifference of Nature, from Chénedollé, 35.
 - Stanzas to the memory of Richard Allen, 35.
 - Stanzas from the Italian of Lorenzo de' Medici, 59.
 - 'The Gallant Auld Carle,' 75.
 - Spanish Romances: viz. 'Awake, awake, my sleeping soul,' 84.
 - 'Come Wandering Sheep,' 86.
 - 'While to Bethlehem we are going,' 87.
 - 'The maiden is disquieted,' 87.
 - 'Nay! Shepherd, nay!' 87.
 - 'The Good Old Count,' 88.
 - 'Lovely Flowret,' 89.
 - 'A Thousand Times I seek,' 89.
 - 'I march me to the field,' 90.
 - 'Ines sent a kiss to me,' 90.
 - 'That's a lie!' 91.
 - Grimaldi's Lament, 95.
 - The Three Fountains, from the Old Slavonico Polish, 132.
 - The Nightingale, from the Dutch of Visscher, 142.
 - Song of the Maidens, 151.
 - The Battle of Waterloo, from the French of de la Vigne, 154.
 - Christian Greece, 156 do.
 - Union, 158 do.
 - Parthenope and the Stranger, 160 do.
 - Goethe's Dedication to his Poems, 186.
 - Stanzas from the Polish of Zimorowicz, 188.
 - Two Sonnets from the Italian of Tebaldeo, 205.
 - Sonnet: 'Sweet Lonely Wood,' from Della Casa, 206.
 - 'Soul that to us descendest,' from Celio Magno, 206.
 - 'Father of Heaven,' from Vittoria Colonna, 207.
 - German Epigrams, 237, 364, 599.
 - Sonnet: 'When I behold a foot-ball,' from Jamyn, 252.
 - 'Ere day is dead, on many a verdant spray,' 271.
 - 'Know'st thou the land where the Citron tree grows?' from Goethe, 285; (see also page 527.)
 - The Rhapsodist; Morning, 291.
 - Sonnet: 'Life has its wintry time ere sullen age,' 292.
 - Chorus from Vondel, 300.
 - Translation from Hooft, 302.
 - The Fighting Gladiator, 332.
 - Gordon of Brackley, 355.
 - Lines on a Picture of Love riding on a Tiger, 372.
 - The Partition of the Earth, from Schiller, 380.
 - Sonnet: 'There was a silent spot where I have been,' 388.
 - from Costanzo, 431.
 - Ariosto, 432.
 - Bernardo Tasso, 432.
 - 'Give me that free-born heart that will not bear,' 452.
 - Good Old Times, 452.
 - The Rhapsodist; Noon, 466.
 - The Two Ravens; an Old Scottish Ballad, 484.

- On the Death of an Infant, from the Dutch, 500.
 Stanzas to M. F. M. 500.
 The Nightingale and the Thorn, 516.
 'Knowest thou the land in which the citron blows,' from Goethe, 527; see also page 285.
 Song: 'Thou tell'st me that the Rose is dead,' 541.
 Kitty, 581.
 The Mill, 582.
 The Pirate's Song, 598.
 Sonnet from M. Angelo, 612.
 ————— Casaregi, 613.
 ————— Firenzuola, ib.
 ————— Montemagno, 614.
 ————— Tarsia, ib.
 Stanzas, 'Farewell, farewell,' 615.
 Death, 622.
 Poets, Early French, see French, Royal.
 Political Economy, Mr. Ricardo's services to, 308—Dialogues on, 341—Dialogue I. on the Elementary Principle, 347—II. 427—III. on the Principle of Value, 547—IV. on the use and abuse of two celebrated distinctions in the Theory of Value, 550—V. on the immediate Uses of the New Theory of Value, 557—VI. on the Objections to the new Law of Value, 561.
 Pompeii, 122.
 Pozzo di Borgo, 102.
 Prophetic dew drops, 117.
 Prose by a Poet, review of, 202.
 Public Events: Spain, Entry of Ferdinand into Madrid, Pozzo di Borgo's speech to him, a Council of Ministers instituted by Ferdinand, 102—and dismissed by him, new ministry, retirement of Morillo and Ballasteros, 103—military occupation of Spain by French troops for three years, conduct towards Riego; France, triumphal entry of the Duc D'Angoulême, 104—General Guilleminot; discontents at Jamaica, 105—Greece, Surrender of the Castle of Corinth; South America, Annuity granted to Bolivar, quarrel between the Mexican Government and Spanish merchants, 106—Arrival of Mina in England, of Arguelles, &c. at Dublin, 107—Ireland, 108—America, Opening of Congress, Proscription of the African Slave Trade, 215—Policy towards the revolted Colonies of Spain, 216—Subscriptions for the Greeks, 217—Ferdinand's decree for abolishing the Constitution of South America, 218—Brazils: Congress dissolved by the Emperor, 219—Spain: Arrest of females, 321—financial plans, 322—Project for Irish Body Guards, Greece: Defeat of the Turks, Greek Loan, Death of Sir T. Maitland; Portugal: Meditated descent on South America, 323—Bolivar's entry into Lima; Hostilities between England and Algiers, Domestic, King's Speech, 324—Parliamentary business, 326—Budget, 327—Spain: Unsettled state of the country, 433—Brazils: New Constitution; France; South America, defeat of a Peruvian force by the Royalists; Domestic, 434—Debate on Delays in Chancery, Public Buildings, 435—Reduction of Taxes, 436—Representation of the City of Edinburgh, Bear-baiting, &c., Flogging in the army, Irish Tithes, 437—Proposed Recognition of South American States, 438—West India Colonies, Sir R. Wilson, 439—France: King's Speech, 568—Spain, 569—Success of the Greeks, 570—House of Commons, Alien Bill, 570—Education in Ireland, Irish Roman Catholic Burials, 571—Slave Trade Piracy Bill, 572—Fees at Westminster Abbey, State of Ireland, 573—British Troops slain by the Ashantees, 576—Spain: the amnesty—Insurrection in Portugal, 577—Departure of Iturbide for Mexico, 578—Death of Lord Byron, 579—Domestic; French force at the Brazils; Employment of the Poor in Ireland, 579—Budget, Irish Church Establishment, 680—Salt Duty, Judges' Salaries, 681—State of Ireland, Leather Tax, 682—Charges against the Duke of Manchester, House of Lords, 683.
 Pyramids, Mexican, 522.
 Quarterly Review on Tithes, 162.
 Rahere, jester to Henry I., 399.
 Ramsey, A.M. account of, 657, notc.
 Recollections of Italy, 21.
 Review: Memoirs of Rossini, 189—Hajji Baba, 193—Prose by a Poet, 202—Smyth's Memoir of Sicily and its Islands, 245—Sabbath among the Mountains, 290—Batavian Anthology, 300—Byron's Deformed Transformed, 315—Captain Parry's Second Voyage, 474—Rose's Translation of the Orlando Furioso, 623.
 Reviewers, 118.
 Rewards and Punishments, in education, 511.
 Ricardo, Mr., his services to Political Economy, 308—his system of ditto, 341—how far he is obscure, 344—distribution of his work, 346—his theory of value, 547, 550—uses of his discovery in Political Economy, 560.
 Richard III. after the manner of the Ancients, 603—Euripides, ib.—Sophocles, 607—Æschylus, 609.
 Richter, John Paul, Analects from, 117—Dream upon the universe, 242.
 Rock, Capt. Memoirs of, review of, 583—account of Rock, 593.
 Rose, Mr., his Translation of Orlando Furioso, 623—its merits, 626.
 Rosicrucians and Free-masons, origin of, 5—rise and earliest records of, 140—dif-

- ferent authors on, 148—J. a Campis, Sperber, Brotoffer, and Maier, 148—no lodges of the order, in Germany, 150. Rossini, Memoirs of, 189—his appearance at the Opera, 209—his wife Madame Colbran Rossini, 210—his opera of Ugo, 673.
- Rosycross, Christian, account of, 142.
- Royal Poets, 638—Henry VI. and VIII. 640—Adrian, David, 641.
- Sabbath among the Mountains, review of, 290.
- Savages of North America, 386—state of women among, 387.
- Savings Banks, scheme of, recommended by Persons the Jesuit, 622.
- Schiller's Life, Part II., 1783-90, 37—his Thalia, 40—Philosophic Letters, 41—Don Carlos, 46—minor poems, 52—Ghost-seer, ib.—residence at Weimar, 53—History of the Revolt of the Netherlands, 57—removes to Jena, 58.
- Schools, new plan of government for, 414—courts for trials, &c. in, 415.
- Scott, Sir W., poetical imitations by, 278.
- Scylla, 391.
- Seamen, pressing of, 139.
- Self-sacrifice, dignity of man in, 121.
- Sensuality, the characteristic of the poetry of the present age, 425.
- Seven Sleepers, legend of, 70.
- Sexes, their powers compared, 293—their conversational characteristics, 299.
- Shakspeare, see Hamlet—his art in the management of that character, 651—his Richard III. imagined after the manner of the Ancients, 603.
- Shee, Mr., his letter relative to his tragedy of Alasco, 313.
- Ship, 313—picture of one when prize-money has been paid, 137.
- Sicily, and its Islands, 245—language, 250—Ægesta, 389—Palermo, 390—Scylla, 391—Fata Morgana, 392—festival of the Barra, ib.—Charybdis, 390—the Latomia, 393.
- Sketches of Paul Jones, 492.
- Smith, Adam, his theory of Value, 348, 355—his Wealth of Nations, 354, note—his distinction between nominal and real value, 551, 554.
- Smyth's memoir of Sicily, review of, 245.
- Son and Heir, a Tale, 14.
- Sophocles, supposed drama of Richard III. by, 607.
- Southey, poetical imitations of, 278.
- Spanish, character, 382.
- Romances, 84.
- Spenser, his description of the misery of Ireland in the reign of Elizabeth, 588.
- Stars, 120.
- Statues, Mexican, 252.
- Superstition, 385, of the Esquimaux, 483.
- Swearing, cursory remarks on, 465.
- Swedenborgianism, Kant on, 487.
- Tales: Son and Heir, 14—Another Bode for Bodenton, 71—The Pirate's Treasure, 261—The Bride of Modern Italy, 357.
- Tasso, compared with Ariosto, 624.
- Tarlton, R., the jester, 517.
- Templars, Dialogues of three, on Political Economy, see Political.
- Templars, Knights, not the origin of the Free-masons, 657.
- Terentius Secundus, J. Lacy's reply to, 469.
- Theatre, importance attached to, in Germany, 39.
- Thurtell, trial of, 165—his address to the court, 179—execution, 184.
- Tithes, the Quarterly Review on, 160.
- Tragedy, no good one by a female, 92—defects of modern tragedy, 61, 274—Mirandola, 275—Lord Byron's tragedies, 276—Poetic school of, 471—the Rhetoric and Poetic Schools compared, 472.
- Trial of Thurtell and Hunt, for the murder of Mr. Weare, 165.
- Tuscany, 24.
- Value, the doctrine of, in Political Economy, 347—the principle of, 547—distinction between real and nominal value, 550.
- Van Butchell, Martin, 286.
- Venice, 22.
- Ver-Vert, Gresset's, 642, note.
- Visit Incog. of the Devil to Ireland, 453.
- Universal Reformation, account of that work, 141.
- Universe, Dream on the, 242.
- University Degrees, 622.
- Vondel, translation from, 300.
- Wages, doctrine of, 351.
- Walk to Pæstum, &c. 122—Pompeii, 123—Nocera, 124—ancient temples, ditto—La Cava and monastery, 125—Vietri, Salerno, 127—ancient castle, 128—galley slaves, 129—conversation with a shepherd, 130—Eboli, 131.
- Warton, his hypothesis as to the Rowleian poems, 636.
- Weare, Mr., narrative of his murder, 169.
- Women, rarely gifted with genius, 296—do not possess imagination in a greater degree than men, 642.